

V-Mail Letter Assessment Rubric

	Advanced	Proficient	Basic	Emerging
Campaign Objective	The letter reveals a complex understanding of the objectives of the campaign.	The letter accurately describes the objective of the campaign.	The letter describes the objective of the campaign, but there are some inaccuracies.	The letter describes the objective of the campaign, but there are many inaccuracies.
Campaign Location/Date	The letter accurately describes the general location and dates of the campaign and includes a more specific geographic location as well.	The letter accurately describes the general location and dates of the campaign.	The letter describes the general location and dates of the campaign, but there is at least one inaccuracy.	The letter describes the general location and dates of the campaign, but there is more than one inaccuracy.
Campaign Assignment Details	The letter accurately describes a specific role in the campaign and notes at least two specific details gathered from the primary source videos.	The letter accurately describes a specific role in the campaign and notes one specific detail gathered from the primary source videos.	The letter accurately describes a specific role in the campaign but does not include any details gathered from the primary source videos.	The letter describes a specific role in the campaign but contains inaccuracies.
Inferences Made from Historical Thinking Skills	The letter reveals deep understanding about how your service member might have felt in the historical context.	The letter reveals a general understanding about how your service member might have felt in the historical context.	The inferences about how your service member might have felt in the historical context are present but seem inaccurate.	The letter does not include inferences about how your service member might have felt in the historical context.
Polished Product	The letter has no grammar or spelling mistakes and is written to an appropriate recipient.	The letter has a few grammar or spelling mistakes and is written to an appropriate recipient.	The letter has many grammar or spelling mistakes and is written to an appropriate recipient.	The letter has many grammar or spelling mistakes and does not include an appropriate recipient.
Instructions	All official government instructions on the V-Mail form, including an attempt to pass censorship regulations, have been followed.	All official government instructions on the V-Mail form have been followed.	Most official government instructions on the V-Mail form have been followed.	Most official government instructions on the V-Mail form were not followed.