Netherlands American Cemetery and Memorial

The U.S. 30th Infantry Division liberated this site on September 13, 1944. A battlefield cemetery was established here on November 10, 1944. The government of the Netherlands granted its free use as a permanent burial ground in perpetuity without charge or taxation.

American Battle Monuments Commission

This agency of the United States government operates and maintains 25 American cemeteries and 26 memorials, monuments and markers in 16 countries. The Commission works to fulfill the vision of its first chairman, General of the Armies John J. Pershing. Pershing, commander of the American Expeditionary Forces during World War I, promised that “time will not dim the glory of their deeds.”

Allied Operations, September 1944 – Spring 1945

The broad Allied advance across Belgium and the Netherlands included the U.S. 12th and U.K. 21st Army Groups as well as the First Canadian and Second British Armies. This advance ultimately resulted in the penetration into Germany and hastened the end of the war.

Successful Allied operations followed landings in Normandy and Southern France. However, logistical shortages slowed momentum. Autumn priority in Northern France, Belgium, and the Netherlands was given to capture of Channel ports and to advance through or around German frontier fortifications (West Wall) into Northern Germany.

Key actions in the ensuing campaign included:

SEPTEMBER 14: Maastricht was the first Dutch city to be liberated.

SEPTEMBER 14 – OCTOBER 21: U.S. First Army besieged and captured Aachen, Germany.

SEPTEMBER THROUGH MARCH: Sustained fierce fighting in the Huertgen Forest.

SEPTEMBER 17: Operation MARKET GARDEN began in the Netherlands. Airborne and armored forces seized key bridges, but not the northernmost bridge at Arnhem.

NOVEMBER 16 – DECEMBER 15: U.S. forces advanced slowly toward the Roer River.

DECEMBER 16: German counteroffensive in the Ardennes (Battle of the Bulge) stopped the Allied advance for one month.

FEBRUARY 23: U.S. Ninth Army began crossing the Roer River in Operation GRENADE.

MARCH 23-24: U.S., British, and Canadian forces launched Operation PLUNDER, crossing the Rhine River around Wesel. Its airborne component, Operation VARSITY, put U.S. and British airborne divisions north of West. This cleared the way for Allied forces to encircle the vital Ruhr region and advance to the North German Plain.

Throughout the period, Allied aircrews flew hazardous strategic missions against German industrial targets and tactical missions in support of the ground forces.
