

Resistance Newspaper Activity Rubric

	Advanced	Proficient	Basic	Emerging
Headline	Newspaper contains headlines that capture attention and accurately describe the content.	Newspaper contains headlines that accurately describe the content.	Newspaper contains headlines that do not accurately describe the content.	Newspaper does not contain headlines.
Written Articles	The written articles apply specific content from the lesson used in a creative way.	The written articles apply specific content from the lesson.	The written articles apply little specific content from the lesson. The content may be confusing or hidden.	The written articles are off-topic and contain little or no content from the lesson.
Images	The newspaper contains two images that serve a purpose to help recruit new resistance members.	The newspaper contains two images that serve a clear purpose.	The newspaper contains one image that serves a purpose or two images that are unclear.	The newspaper does not contain images or includes unrelated images.
Historical Perspective	The article contains specific historical details like dates, statistics, and facts.	The article contains some historical details, including dates and facts.	The article contains some historical details but fails to include dates and specific facts.	The article fails to include historical facts.
Spelling and Grammar	No spelling or grammar errors.	No more than two spelling or grammar errors.	No more than three spelling or grammar errors.	Multiple spelling and grammar errors.