

Photographic Analysis Rubric

	Advanced	Proficient	Basic	Emerging
Observations	Student makes a complete and detailed description of the subject (person/people), object(s), and activity(ies) in the photograph.	Student makes a complete and detailed description of most of the subject (person/people), object(s), and activity(ies) in the photograph.	Student describes some of some of the subject (person/people), object(s), and activity(ies) in the photograph.	Student attempts to make a description of the subject (person/people), object(s), and activity(ies) in the photograph. Student descriptions are not detailed or complete.
Inferences	Student makes more than three insightful and detailed inferences from his/her observation and analysis of the photograph. Student is able to fully explain what evidence he/she used from the photograph to make the inferences.	Student makes three detailed inferences from his/her observation and analysis of the photograph. Student is able to explain what evidence he/she used from the photograph to make the inferences.	Student makes one or two somewhat detailed inferences from his/her observation and analysis of the photograph. Student is able to somewhat explain what evidence he/she used from the photograph to make the inferences.	Student attempts to make inferences from his/her observation and analysis of the photograph. Student is attempts/is unable to explain what evidence he/she used from the photograph to attempt to make inferences.
Questions	Student provides three or more questions raised by the photograph. Student is also able to provide appropriate suggestions on where to find the answers to the questions.	Student provides two questions raised by the photograph. Student is also able to provide mostly appropriate suggestions on where to find the answers to the questions.	Student provides one question raised by the photograph or more than one that are loosely related to the photograph. Student is also able to provide a suggestion on where to find the answer to the question.	Student attempts to provide questions raised by the photograph but is unable to do so. Student is unable to provide any suggestions on where to find answers to questions about the photograph.